Meet the Sub Camps

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

Sub Camp Chiefs	2-3
Scout Troop Sub Camps	4-5
Lone Patrols Sub Camp	6
Venture Sub Camp	6
Family Sub Camp	6
JST Sub Camp	6

Welcome to the special Sub Camps edition of the Jamborí newsletter.

In the coming weeks your own Sub Camp team will contact you or your Scout or Venture Leader to welcome you to your home (the place to sleep) for Jamborí.

Each Sub Camp is named after a fictional realm, some from Myth and Legend, others from Books and Comics.

Each Sub Camp will use its theme, colours and lore to build programme elements.

Of course, there's a chance you might not be familiar with the ins and outs of the Hunger Games. Maybe you're under the impression that there are indeed more congenial spots for adventuring than on the planet Naboo.

Don't worry if you don't quite know your Gandalfs from your Aberforth Dumbledores just yet; in these pages you can read about the Sub Camps, their themes and their teams and between now and the Jamborí read the books and check out the movie versions.

Be sure to visit each of the Sub Camps during your stay, to sample the unique atmosphere each one promises to offer.

Access to Camelot (the JST Sub Camp) and Wonderland (the Family Sub Camp) will be restricted.

It is not yet clear which Sub Camp will be the best, but for now, it is probably safe to assume that your own Sub Camp will come out on top at the (probably-non-existent) Sub Camp of The Year Awards!

Naboo (Scouts)

Naboo is a planet in the Star Wars Universe.

It is the home of Padmé Amidala, birth-mother of Luke Skywalker and of Princess Leia.

Naboo also happens to be the birthplace of Jar Jar Binks, and Emperor Palpatine, the evil Dark Lord of the Sith, also hailed from Naboo. We try not to hold that against them.

Naboo is known for its luxurious palaces, elegant royal costumes, sleek spaceships, and underwater cities.

The North Eastern Scout Province's John Kelly has assembled a team of Naboo princesses, Sith Lords, Gungans and royal guards - and a few rebels & droids - to welcome you to Naboo.

The Force is strong here.

Middle Earth (Scouts)

Welcome to Middle Earth. One Sub Camp to Rule them all.

Hobbits, Orcs, Elves, Dragons, Troll, Ents and Wizards call Middle Earth home.

"Speak Friend, and Enter." They talk funny there.

But David McCann's South Eastern Scout Province fellowship have also managed to learn the common tongue, so don't feel like you can't say hello to them.

Don't be surprised if they give you a quest if you do.

You shall not pass—without knowing that 'Mellon' is the elvish word for 'Friend'.

Krypton (Scouts)

Krypton is a planet with a red sun, where heroes are made.

It is the home of Kal-El (Superman), Kara (Supergirl) and Krypto (Superdog), and the source of Kryptonite, which is like the Kryptonite for these super non-human Kryptonians.

Non-non-human Damien O'Brien from the Western Scout Province has gathered together a Sub Camp Justice League to ensure that "Truth, Justice and the Scouting Way" (motto to be confirmed) are maintained for the Jamborí.

For obvious reasons, there is a strict ban on bright green rocks in Krypton, so residents of Oz may face decontamination treatment before they may enter.

Any billionaires with a God-complex are also advised to steer clear.

Oz (Scouts)

Warning! Tornado alert is in effect. Get yourself and your cute little dog to your storm shelters or you may end up somewhere over the rainbow.

Oz is the home of Oz, the great and powerful Wizard, not forgetting the witch of the North and those flying monkeys.

Sub camp Chief Tony 'Toto' Smith and his Northern Scout Province team have been busy behind the curtain and are all set to deliver phantasmagorical experiences for the citizens of Oz.

But where exactly is the Oz Sub Camp?

Follow the Yellow Brick Road. Follow the Yellow Brick road. Follow. Follow.

Follow. Follow. Follow the Yellow Brick Road.

You're not in Kansas anymore.

Gotham is the home of Batman, Robin, Alfred and let's face it a lot of strange and dodgy characters. And that's just the Sub Camp team.

The latest news from

Peter Butler and the Southern Province team is that they have successfully escaped from Arkham Asylum, and they're ready for the ultimate battle between The Dark Knight and The Joker. Before visiting Wayne Manor, please decommission your umbrellas, batamarangs and grappling hooks.

Do: practice your pretend vertical wall climbing and your heroic (but flawed) pose.

Don't: attempt to drive the pioneering bat mobile.

Also, stay out of the basement, for no particular reason.

Gotham (Scouts)

Hogsmeade (Scouts)

You've got to admire the Hogsmeade's Sub Camp Chief's decision to grow a full-length beard.

It's not yet clear if any magic or trickery will be used to maintain said beard for the duration of Jamborí.

Trish Blake's Dublin Scout Province magical team are all set to welcome muggles, wizards, witches and the odd fantastic beast to Hogsmeade.

It is the place for Witchcraft and Wizardry and the only half-decent Butterbeer this side of Durmstrang.

For those who are tired of queuing, there have been rumours – overheard by Filch the caretaker – that somewhere on this Sub Camp there is a room full of chamber pots.

And finally: the third-floor corridor on the right-hand side is out of bounds to everyone who does not wish to die a very painful death.

PATROLS IN ACTION

Ciara Keegan and Deion McCarthy will lead the Patrols-In-Action team who will be supporting the Lone Patrols at Jamborí.

Lone Patrols are Patrols of Scouts who will camp for themselves and support each other with the help of mentors and sub camp staff.

Lone Patrols have worked successfully at Jamborí's predecessor 'Patrols in Action' camps 1 to 5 held in each of our National Scout Centres each year since 2013.

The Lone Patrols will thrive at Jamborí and will hopefully provide answers to age-old questions such as: why do hotdogs come in packs of 10, while hotdog buns come in packs of 8?

The prevailing theory is that more people are low-carb gluten-free than are vegetari- an...

Panem (Venture Scouts)

Here it's safe, here it's warm. Here the daisies guard you from every harm.

The Venture Scouts of Panem have been practicing their three-finger salute since they were Beavers. They've just been using the wrong hand.

If you want to see a real life version of The Hunger Games, take one packet of (gluten-free, dairy-free, fair-trade) Hobnobs, place in the middle of a Venture Scout kitchen, and ask them to help themselves.

Sub Camp Chief Stephen

'radiant as the sun' Carey has been chosen as tribute.

May the odds be ever in your favour.

Wonderland (Family Sub Camp)

Wonderland and Camelot Sub Camps were introduced in the first issue of this Newsletter:

Camelot (JST Sub Camp)

This newsletter is produced by the Jamborí d-Ri-m team. Every effort is made to be accurate on the date of publication.
