“The place is absolutely buzzing!” So says Caoimhe (16) from Little Island, Panem Sub Camp, “it’s a wonder to behold”

JamboRí’s Opening Ceremony kicked off with a countdown and a flag raising ceremony, performed by some minions from Wonderland Sub Camp.

Kiernan the Camp Chief welcomed everyone and told us that “every Scout should experience a Jamboree at least once”.

Each of the Sub Camp Chiefs were introduced to the crowd. “That was the best part of the ceremony,” Lorcan (13) from 2nd Wexford, Middle Earth told us.

Representatives from each of the international contingents were also brought to the stage. William, (15) 6th Meath Ashbourne, Middle Earth thought that it was “nice to show everyone off” and that it “opened up how you think about each country”

Norwegian Scout, Emil (14), from Erik Hareford Gruppe, Ølstykke, Naboo had travelled by plane to get here, and stayed in a cabin before coming to Stradbally. He thought the music at the after party was “absolutely fantastic”.

Aidan (17) 109th Cork, Balinora, Panem thought the opening was “Exciting, inclusive, diverse and amazing”, and he’s looking forward to “challenges, fun, and making friends from overseas”. Ciara (15) Chapelizod, Krypton thought the party was “Whopper, it was only amazing”.

Venture Scouter Simon Briggs (21+) 48th Lucan, Panem told us that his group was “loving it.” His big hope for the week is “to survive!”

The disco/rave/box social continued into the wee small hours and JST Sean (19) 46th Dublin Trinity, Camelot thought that it was “such a JamÓige rave!”

the story begins

Rachel (16) 1st Armagh, Oz, thought the show was “very entertaining & inclusive!” She’s “personally looking forward to meeting some Americans or Canadians. She thinks the Jamborí song “very catchy”

This is Darragh (12) 10th Kiltiernan, Hogsmeade’s first Scout camp. He thinks it’s great to see everyone having so much fun together!” It’s a similar story for Róisín (12) 9th Clare Ennistymon. She was happy to dance in her flip flops and was impressed with the “good dance moves” on show.

Clare (15) 52nd Mallow, Krypton, was one of those who came back to the rave when they’d checked in with their Scouters. “I’m here for the banter!” she said.

Ruth (16) 9th Port Malahide Meala, Panem described the disco as “pretty lit”. Were not sure what that means, but fair play to Ruth.

“This is the best experience I’ve ever had!” said Martin (12) Ballyboro, Gotham.

Some Groups missed out on the opening ceremony as they’d just arrived. We met Aaron (13) 30th Craigalmond, Edinburgh, UK, Oz ran over to the stage when his site was put up. He’s looking forward to “everything”.

Leo (16) 1st Mayo Castlebar, Panem wasn’t sure why he was being interviewed “No point in interviewing me, sure I know they won’t print anything the likes of me would say in the newspaper” Rock on Leo, Rock on.

Joe (12) 1st Port Ringsend, Middle Earth couldn’t think of anything to say but was very insistent that he get a mention in the paper.

Each 9x9 grid needs each of the characters:

J A M B O R Í 1 8

so does each horizontal line, and each vertical line
